

3rd Sunday of Easter

Welcome to all who celebrate the Mass with us today. May God's grace and peace fill us all so that we can serve one another in unity and love.

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

In prayer you call upon a Father who judges each one justly, on the basis of his actions. Since this is so, conduct yourselves reverently during your sojourn in a strange land." If we are to recognize Christ in the world, we must come to recognize him in the breaking of the bread. If God is to recognize us in the world, it is in the life we lead. Stewardship is the living out of the values we profess. If the Lord were to seek evidence of our faithfulness, would such evidence be forthcoming? Once again, if we truly believe that our ultimate goal is eternal life, we must live in this world as people on a journey. By supporting the work of the pilgrim Church on earth, we come to full membership in the Church triumphant in heaven.

This Sunday the readings are: (1) Acts 2: 14, 22-33
 (2) 1 Peter 1: 17-21 (3) Luke 24: 13-35. Gather # 1067 Year A
Next Sunday the readings will be: (1) Acts 2: 14, 36-41
 (2) 1 Peter 2: 20-25 (3) John 10: 1-10. Gather # 1070 Year A

THANKS FOR YOUR CONTINUED GENEROSITY

PLEASE REMEMBER MHC IN YOUR WILL

When considering which charities to include in your will or trust, we hope you will remember Mary, Help of Christians. The parish gratefully accepts donations of stock. A tax deduction for a gift of appreciated securities to a charity equals its full fair market value.

From The Pastor's Desk

Fr. Bedel

Beloved in Christ,

Our very own John Grusenmeyer of Sacred Heart parish will be ordained a transitional deacon this coming Saturday. Please keep John and his classmates in your prayers as they begin ministry in the Church and head into their final year of formation for priesthood.

Looking ahead: At the end of the Easter Season, we have the experience of celebrating several glorious moveable feasts four Sundays in a row: Ascension of our Lord, Pentecost, Most Holy Trinity, and Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, also known as Corpus Christi. They are on different dates every year, but they are super important. I invite your family to think of creative ways to amplify the important mysteries we celebrate on these glorious feasts. For example, we find ourselves in the midst of a three-year Eucharistic Revival. Check out <https://www.eucharisticrevival.org> for some ways to emphasize the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist as we celebrate the feast of His Body and Blood. There is discussion in our parishes about Eucharistic Processions and other things we can do to amplify our love of Jesus in the Eucharist.

Thanks for your prayers. Be assured of my daily prayers for you.

Happy Easter!

Fr. Bedel

IDEA FOR THE WEEK

ENJOY THE SILENCE FOR A FEW MINUTES

Spiritual Communion

If You Can't Receive Communion, Make a Spiritual Communion
"Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart."

Act of Spiritual Communion

The Church encourages frequent, even daily, Holy Communion, but if at any time we cannot go to Mass in or out of this season of the coronavirus, we can still unite ourselves to the Eucharist through making a spiritual Communion. By making an Act of Spiritual Communion, we express our faith in Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist and ask him to unite himself with us. Here is the Act of Spiritual Communion written by St. Alphonsus de Liguori:
My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

CATHOLIC RELIEF COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND

Catholic Relief Collection April 22 & April 23

This week, our parish will have The Catholic Relief Services Collection (CRSC). Funds from this collection help provide food to the hungry, support to displaced refugees, and Christ's love and respect to all people here at home and abroad. Next week, please give generously to the CRSC and help Jesus in disguise. Learn more about the collection at www.usccb.org/catholic-relief. There will be a second collection at all Masses for Catholic Relief Services. Please note that if you are using a check to make your donation, your check should be made payable to Mary, Help of Christians (with "Catholic Relief Services" noted on the memo line). We consolidate the donations and write one check. Or use the envelope provided in your April/ May envelope pack. Again, thanks so much for your generosity.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

WITNESSES TO THE RESURRECTION

WITNESSES TO THE RESURRECTION:
Living the Call to Holiness
What is your mission?
April 27 | Fr. Bedel

WITNESSES TO THE RESURRECTION: Living the Call to Holiness

Join us on April 27 at 7:00PM in Kramer Hall at St. Luke Parish for another presentation by Fr. Bedel. During Lent we unpacked the Mass and this Easter we will launch from where we ended. Every Mass ends with the command to "Go forth!" We are sent on Mission after every encounter with the Risen Christ in the Eucharist. Join us as we explore what accepting that mission could mean for us as disciples in the Church.

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

St. Vincent de Paul Thank You

St. Vincent de Paul would like to thank the parishioners for their generosity that enabled us to provide monetary and food donations. During the month of March 2023, we responded to 209 calls for assistance. We assisted 70 families with utilities, medicine, rent/ rent deposits, household goods and furniture. We also provided food for 84 families (176 adults and 106 children). Your generosity regarding financial and in-kind donations enables us to continue this work and for this, we are very grateful. Thank you! We are not able to provide this assistance without your committed, generous and faithful support! We also received a very generous grant from the Schultz Family Foundation to supplement the financial donation we received from the '100-Plus Women Making a Difference in Greene County' organization! You may think it is money only that makes this happen. It is not but is applied by virtue of God's committed and compassionate and caring people who give of their time talent and treasure that are inspired to bring Christ's love to the poor of Fairborn through relationships and service. Please consider what time and capability you have and join us to bring hope and love through service to meet the need! Contact Tom Boland (937-469-3267) or Mary Jo Martin (937-623-6475).

VBS ST. LUKE

TABLET TRIVIA

Did you know that Moses went up the mountain many times to talk to God? Phew! He must have been so fit to do that hike multiple times. On the mountain top, God gave Moses the commandments for right relationships with one another and to give right worship to the one true God. This is the covenant! He will be our God and we are His people.

How many days was Moses on the mountain when God gave him the tablets of the Ten Commandments?

The answer can be found in Exodus 24:18 & 34:28

SPIRITUAL WRITING GROUP

Spiritual Writing Group

All adult parishioners and friends are invited to join anytime. We meet on the first and third Thursdays of the month beginning at 1:00PM and ending no later than 3:00PM. After praying together we spend a silent hour with personal writing--journaling, letters or prayers to God, memoirs or autobiography, etc. There is an optional time for anyone who wants to read aloud some part of their writing. When this happens the group listens quietly without responding, unless the reader requests feed-back. A variety of prompts/questions and information to spark your writing are available. Our next meeting is Thursday, May 18. Call Pat Scanlon for questions or more information at 937-572-2530.
