

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

He spoke to them at length in parables, saying:
“A sower went out to sow.”

Matthew 13:3

Welcome to all who celebrate the Mass with us today. May God's grace and peace fill us all so that we can serve one another in unity and love.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"You haven't seen anything yet!" "I consider the sufferings of the present to be as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed in us." Ours is a God of great bounty. His many gifts (especially the gift of his Word) spread out over the world like so much seed. What becomes of the seed that falls into our lives is our business, but we do well to remember that God's will is an effective will. God's word "shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it." If we cultivate God's gifts in our lives, then we shall be ready for the harvest. If we fail to be good stewards, we are to be counted with the weeds. With our time, with our treasure, with our talents, let us yield a hundred - or sixty - or thirty-fold.

STEWARDSHIP MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT NEXT WEEKEND

Mary, Help of Christians Ministry Spotlight

Losing a loved one can be one of the most difficult tasks of life. As families grieve the loss, we can walk beside them, offering Christian hope and love. Mary, Help of Christians offers several ways to do this. Bereavement ministers serve at the funeral as sacristans, readers, Eucharistic Ministers, gift bearers or greeters. Bereavement ministers performs a number of tasks and hold various responsibilities vital to helping bereaved church members deal with their loss while they pass through the stages of grief. Understanding the duties of the bereavement ministry will help you determine if, in the unfortunate event of a loss, you would benefit from its aid. We can use more bereavement ministers to help at funeral masses. If you feel God calling you to bereavement ministry and/or would like more information, please check out the Ministry Spotlight next weekend Saturday & Sunday, July 22 & 23. Bereavement Ministers will be in the Gathering space to answer any questions.

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHTS

Mary, Help of Christians has more than 50 ministries that meet the diverse needs of its members and the community. Over the next few months we will highlight a series of those ministry profiles. These Ministry Spotlights highlight the wide variety of opportunities to serve and be served at Mary Help. Our hope is that somewhere in these 50-plus ministries is one that's just right for you! A Ministry Spotlight is a celebration of the work of the Church. It is a time to learn about the programs, ministries and services of the parish, as well as an opportunity for all parishioners to consider their God given talents and gifts and to discern how those gifts can be of service to others.

Now is the time for you to reflect upon your gifts and how they might be of service to the community. This can help you grow in your relationship with God and with each other, for we are all called to be good stewards of our lives. Highlighting the ministries and activities of the parish on will help all of us witness the vast treasures of gifts and talents within our faith community. We have all been gifted by God, so as to use our gifts for the good of the others. Please pray to discern your gifts and talents and how you might use them for the common good. Watch for a table in the gathering space that each ministry is highlighted.

This week we will take a break for the Festival
July 22 & 23 we will return with our Bereavement Ministry.

SPEAK LIFE

WELCOME TO OUR NE3 FAMILY

Father Matthew Lee

In the 14 years since ordination, I was vicar of the Northwest 6 Family of Parishes after being pastor of the four Catholic churches in Champaign County for five years, having been parochial vicar there for four years. During this time, I was also parochial administrator of St. Mary of the Woods, Russells Point, for two years. Other pastoral assignments include St. Maximilian Kolbe in Butler County and the Petersburg Parishes in Auglaize and Shelby Counties. Before seminary, I spent 12 years of active duty with the U.S. Air Force as a software engineer and network administrator. It was during this time that my vocation took shape, and a critical part of discernment was Eucharistic adoration. While my patron saint is St. Matthew the Apostle, I have a special devotion to St. John Bosco and St. Dominic Savio. In my leisure time, I enjoy practical sewing.

Father Patrick Blenman

Coming from a family of six, I grew up in Sidney, Ohio, and attended Holy Angels Church. My parents were attentive to bringing us up in the Catholic faith; I was homeschooled until I transferred to Lehman Catholic High School. There, I was involved in choir, band, and other student organizations while also an active altar server at Holy Angels. I distinctly remember my first thoughts about priesthood. I was 12 and at the Youth and Family Encounter Conference in Atlanta, run by the Legionaries of Christ. Watching the priests process out of the closing Mass, I thought "It might be cool to be a priest," and from that moment, this thought and the Lord's movement in my life kept coming back, no matter how hard I tried to suppress it. A few months later, I opened up about this desire to Father Matthew Van Smooenburg, LC, on my first Legionaries' retreat. I learned to lay this desire before Our Lord in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, to strive for virtue, and to nurture this call. I began to live my life for Jesus Christ. I have been blessed by many mentors, parents, family, and many of my parish's priests, especially: Father Patrick McMullen, Father Matthew Van Smooenburg, LC, Father Daniel Schmitmeyer, Father Jason Bedel, Father Daniel Hess, and Father Shawn Landenwitch. I most look forward to being an instrument of God's grace and mission to the world's people in celebrating the Sacraments. Favorite devotions that help guide and strengthen me include the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Divine Mercy with the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the Rosary and Lectio Divina. I enjoy camping, hiking, watching movies, smoking my pipe and hanging out with friends. Amid our world's great turmoil, it is more important than ever to spread Jesus Christ's message and strive for holiness. Many struggles and questions in our lives and world are only overcome and answered through Jesus Christ. My work as a priest is to serve this Church instituted by Christ, which includes helping you, the people of God, to grow in holiness and relationship with Jesus Christ. Let us pray for one another as we share this hopeful Gospel message to our families, friends, and communities.
